

DATA CENTERS

FAST FACTS:

- More than 25,000 IT workers are in the CLT Region.
- A 280 Acre Enterprise Data Center Campus is located in Cleveland County, NC: T5 DATA CENTER PARK.
- The University of NC at Charlotte is home to the Center for Information, Security and Assurance within the College of Computing and Informatics. This center has a core focus on information security, assurance and privacy issues facing data centers today.

WHY CLEVELAND COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA?

- Business Strengths
  - Cleveland Community College Data Center Certification available.
  - NC has lowest unionization rate in the US. There are no unionized facilities in Cleveland County.
- Data Center Park with Sites and Buildings Available
  - Shovel ready sites available.
  - Data Center purpose built, powered shell building available (75,000sqft and expandable to 139,000sqft).
  - Robust, redundant and cost efficient electrical, water, sewer and natural gas utilities.
  - Low risk of natural disasters.
- Local Government Support
  - Expedited & Streamlined Permitting.
  - Aggressive Financial Incentives.

CLEVELAND COUNTY LOGISTICAL ADVANTAGES

- Reliable Air Transportation
  - Charlotte Douglass International (CLT)
  - Greenville Spartanburg International (GSP)
- Fast Interstate Highway System
  - I-85, I-26, I-40 Accessibility

